City of Lafayette Releases Fresh Air Eats Schedule for 2021

LAFAYETTE, INDIANA – April 20, 2021 – The Lafayette Board of Works approved the 2021 schedule for Fresh Air Eats dates in downtown Lafayette. Starting this May and running through October, the event will be held monthly starting on Friday evening and running through Sunday evening. For the month of May, Fresh Air Eats will be the third and fourth weekends to accommodate for Purdue’s graduation (May 14-16) and a statewide firefighter convention being held in Lafayette (May 20-23). Additional dates are June 18-20, July 16-18, August 13-15, September 24-26, and October 8-10.

“We are very excited to bring back this popular downtown event,” states Mayor Tony Roswarski. “We had a tremendous amount of positive feedback from citizens and restaurant owners who enjoyed the outdoor dining experience with family and friends. We hope these

Fresh Air Eats weekends will provide an additional revenue source for our small business community as we proceed out of the pandemic.”

Street closures for the Fresh Air Eats will begin on Friday at 4 pm and run through Sunday at 9 pm. Here are the streets that will be affected:

- Main Street between 10th and 11th Streets
- Main Street between 6th and 8th Streets
- Main Street between 5th and 6th Streets
- 5th Street between Main and Columbia Streets
- Main Street between 3rd and 4th Street
- Main Street between 2nd and 3rd Streets
- 2nd Street from the north side of the parking entrance for the MARQ to Ferry Street

Please visit the City’s website at www.lafayette.in.gov or any of our social media sites for future downtown events.
