Jeremy Diehl Appointed New City Controller

LAFAYETTE, INDIANA – June 17, 2021 – Mayor Tony Roswarski has appointed Jeremy Diehl as the new City Controller. Diehl was sworn-in in front of family, friends, and City employees in a ceremony on June 10. He has been with the City of Lafayette since March of 2019 where he has served as Deputy City Controller until his appointment last week.

“I am very pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy Diehl as the new City Controller,” states Mayor Tony Roswarski. “Jeremy brings a wealth of knowledge and experience as Deputy Controller and an excellent work ethic to this position. I look forward to his service as the financial advisor to me, the City Council, and to the various department directors. We know he will continue to work on behalf of our citizens to provide accurate and transparent financial reporting for the City of Lafayette.”
