VIRTUAL Zoo Camps Notes:

- All fees listed are per household, per session, unless otherwise noted. Fees include access privileges to online content and downloadable resource materials, including topic discussions, animal presentations, zoo exhibit tours, science demos, craft/activity demos. Families will receive a list of supplies they need to procure in order to complete the included crafts and activities, at their discretion.
- Internet access required. Access to a printer is required to complete all activities.
- All content is pre-developed - no need to join live webinars at scheduled times. You can self pace through materials.
- Content will be made available on the date indicated. Orders received prior to this date will receive access when content is launched. Orders received after the launch date will receive access in 3-5 business days. Access privileges expire after 60 days. Access privileges are limited to the email address you provide on the order form.
- Camp content is developed for the age range indicated. However, you are welcome to allow siblings outside of the intended age range to participate if you choose! Some activities may require adult assistance.
- Payment in full is due at the time of ordering. All orders for virtual camps are non-refundable.
