When you are ready to add an animal to your family, please bring this completed form to the Almost Home Humane Society. This offer will be valid for one year from the date of the fire. Please note that you will still need to complete an adoption application, visit with an adoption counselor and meet the Animal Shelter's adoption criteria, which are summarized below.

To facilitate the best match possible, we ask that you complete an adoption application. Should the need arise; we reserve the right to verify veterinary records and/or contact property managers/landlords. With the exception of a working cat program, AHHS does not approve applications for outdoor cats or dogs.
